Long Term Discipleship Plan

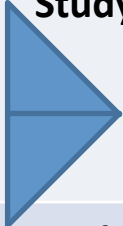

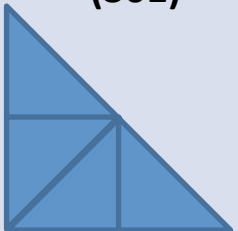

Traditional Bible Study Paradigm v. Head, Heart, Hands Paradigm

Main difference: spend extra time on how people in the story feel and how empathizing with them makes you feel. We believe this is more likely to help you get the Holy Spirit's leading.

Should I Transition from Basic Discipleship to Long-term Discipleship?

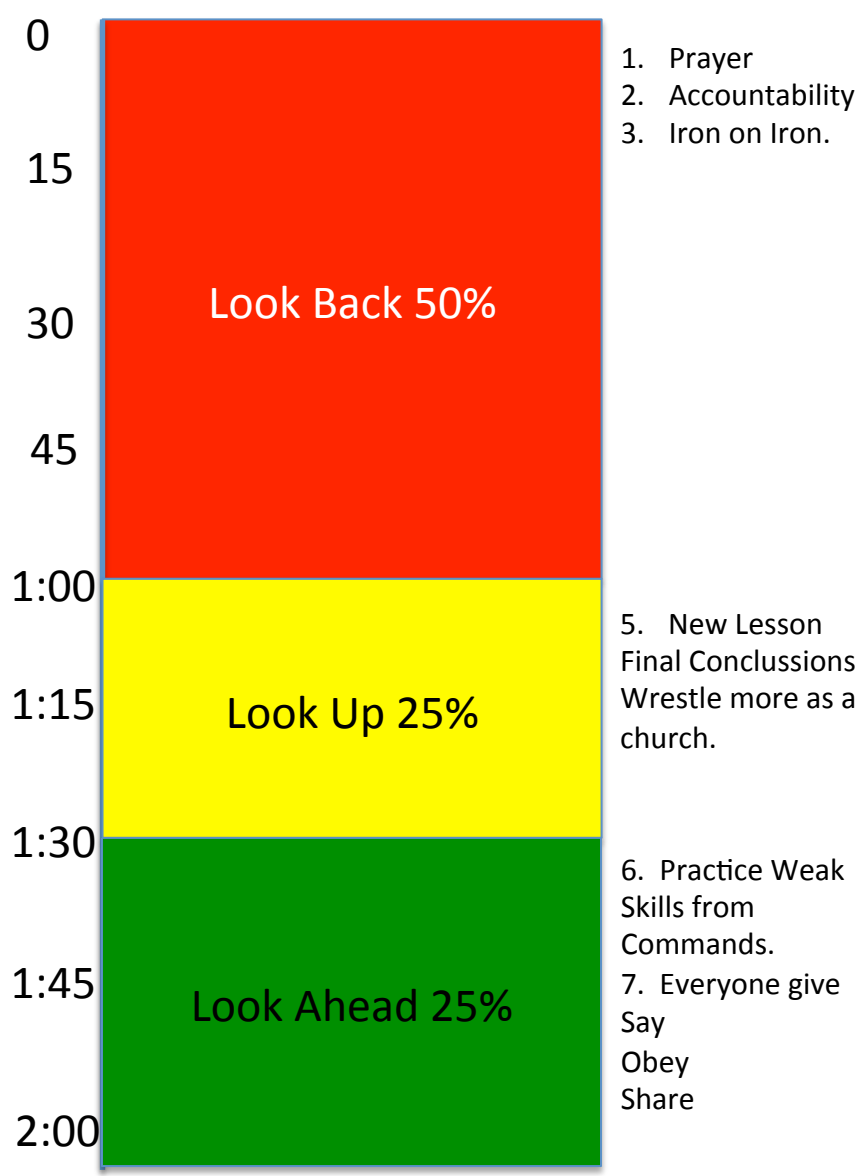

- Have the majority of your church members achieved the training objectives?
 - Field 1-Develop oikos map and Pray daily with for oikos, conducts regular house of peace searches
 - Field 2-Share testimony and the gospel instinctively (about five times weekly).
 - Field 3-Train others in basic discipleship, has a legitimate baptism, reading 20 chapters per week, memorizes a verse per week, prays consistently
 - Field 4-Commit to God and each other to be a church.
 - Leader Development-Meet with a two to three person A-Team weekly.
- Are your church members willing to devote an extra hour a week to studying the scripture on their own?
- Are your church members willing to meet for two hours instead of one and a half hours?

Using Time in Intermediate Bible Study

Week 1

Week 2

Leading Longterm Discipleship-Example 3/3

Look Back:

1. Pastoral Care. Ask how each member's church, A-team, or disciple is doing.
2. Prayer and worship.
3. Loving Accountability. Each week:
 - A. Ask, did you obey God what God told you to do from last week's study?
 - B. Choose one of the following commitments from the foundations study to ask about: share the gospel five times, read twenty chapters, meet with an A-team.
 - C. Quote scripture.
4. Vision Casting. Take 3-5 minutes to remind everyone of the direction.

Look Up:

5. Convictions Study:

Head: What was the best observation that you made from the scriptures.

Heart: What did God say to you. Spend most of your time here.

Hand: Ask each person for a Say, Obey, Share.

Look Ahead:

6. Practice. Practice a skill that the church is weak on.
7. Goal setting. Write down each disciple's goal from their application; make sure everyone agrees on what they will be held accountable to.
